Kick-Off Summer at the Logan Trails Festival!

LOGAN—The Logan Trails Festival will kick-off the summer season on Saturday, June 3, 2107 from 9am to 1pm MST at the Merlin Olsen Central Park (300 East Center Street) in Logan, Utah.

The Logan Trails Festival, sponsored by the Logan Downtown Alliance in cooperation with Logan City Parks & Recreation Department, Logan City Police Department, and the Utah Department of Public Safety, is looking forward to everyone enjoying the Logan City Urban Trails and promoting safe outdoor recreation. And a special focus of the festival will be centered on several popular trails to downtown Logan.

The Logan Trails Festival will feature 5 outdoor activities:

5K trail run will use the Pioneer Park Walkway, Boulevard Trail and Canyon Road Trail for this exciting urban trail running event. Running event begins at 10:10am

10-Mile Urban Trail Run will use the Merlin Olsen Park Trails, Boulevard Trail, Aggie Trail, 1000 North Trail, Lundstrom Park Trail, Bonneville Shoreline Trail and Canyon Road Trail for this incredible trail running event. Running event begins at 9:10am.

Bike Rodeo, hosted by the Logan City Police, will take place on 300 East between Center Street and 100 South, from 10am to 12pm. This activity will help prepare children and youth to enjoy safe cycling by offering a bicycle safety check, helmet inspection, and riding skills course. Free youth helmets while supplies last.

Tour of Utah Celebration & Summer Picnic, hosted by the Logan Race Club, includes a 73-Mile supported bike ride and a Maverik Bon Fire Grill BBQ between 11am and 1pm with live music with Alina Brown hosted by KSM Music.
